

Chapter 6: Listing Your RV

| Best Practices for Your RV Rental Listing

1. _____ and more _____ are key to a great RV rental listing.
2. Your listing _____ serves to capture a renter's attention and will help them decide if they want to read more.
3. Your listing _____ should include all of the details about your RV and its amenities.
4. You should also include local _____ in your listing description.

| Listing Rules

1. Each RV rental platform gives you the opportunity to set your own _____ that determine how, when, and at what price people can book your RV.
2. Try to set a price that's in the _____ of the price range for similar RV rentals in your area.
3. Depending on the value of your rig, security deposits can range from $_____ to $_____ or more.
4. The RV rental platform will let you choose the type of _____ (flexible or strict) that you want.

| Other Listing Options

1. _____ like bikes, generators, s'more kits, airport pick-up/drop-offs, and other features can be great ways to earn extra money and add more value for your guests.
2. Most RV rental platforms have a built-in _____ where you can create add-ons and set daily or one-time pricing.